A photograph of a wheat field under bright sunlight. The wheat is a vibrant golden-yellow color, indicating it is ripe. The field is organized into long, straight rows that recede into the distance. In the center of the frame, a small white rectangular sign is placed among the wheat stalks. The sign has a thin wooden border and contains the text 'PŠENICE OZIMÁ' on the top line and 'GRIZZLY' on the bottom line. The background shows a line of green trees and a clear sky, suggesting a rural setting.
